With dolik.rce on upp IRC we came to the conclusion that maybe it would be a good idea to have "Interactive help via IRC" button (or similar) on upp webpage. What do you think? He says, he is a regular there and I agreed to join him actively (most likely 2pm-11pm London,UK time on workdays). Maybe some adjusted schedules would be useful? Other ideas?

Regards,
Aris

Just a note for clarity:

The button would be a link to some web-based irc client leading directly to the upp channel, e.g. http://mibbit.com/?channel=%23upp&server=irc.slashnet.or g.
