Hello,

U++ definitely needed new release. So, it seems that we can now celebrate 2015.1!

Sincerely,
Klugier

Hello Mirek,

You forgot to change version number on main site ("Current release").

Sincerely,
Klugier

Hi everyone,

Stable repository on launchpad now contains the 8227 packages.

OBS build is running right now as well. Once ready, all the packages for various distributions will be available in repositories here.

Best regards,
Honza

Hi,

The front page of this site still needs to be updated to 8227 instead of the old 5485.

((Or would it be better to simply remove version numbers from there? Newcomers do not need this information since they are likely headed to the download page to get whatever is the latest release and those already familiar with U++... well they do not need it either on the front page, I guess.))

Best regards,

Tom
